4 O'CLOCK EDITION

Ardmore, Tuesday, March 29, 1934.

TERRITORY POLITICS.

Arthur W. Walcott of Halleyville, who is taking an active part in the management of Dr. Halley's campaign for national committee, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Walcott said he had come here to see R. W.
 Dick, candidate for the same office from the Chickasaw Nation. Upon being informed that Mr. Dick was out of the city he said he would remain here a week or see him.

In speaking of the campaign Mr.
 Walcott said that Halley's chances were better now than they had been at any previous time, and that he had more instructed votes by six than Robert L. Williams, the Durant candidate.
 Dr. Halley is at home from a visit to Hot Springs and has assumed active management of his campaign.

Judging from the assertion, made by Mr. Walcott, there will be a warm fight at the Durant convention before the credential committee. He says that Mr. Williams' activity has led to his endorsement by clubs upon their first organization when not more than six to ten men were members.
 These clubs have grown to have a membership numbering in the hundreds and they are not willing to abide by the instructions voted upon the club when it had less than a dozen members. Contested delegations from the Choctaw Nation will be the result, and Democrats by the score who have been disgusted with such proceedings will flock to the support of the Chickasaw candidate.

Mr. Walcott made the assertion that Dr. Halley was counting on the endorsement of Antlers, in the Choctaw Nation, but upon examination we find Antlers' club has already endorsed Mr. Williams. A recent number of the Antlers' News says: "The action of the Democratic club Saturday night in endorsing Hon. R. L. Williams for national committee was, in our estimation, very commendable.
 He is a man well adapted to the position for which he was endorsed." This would imply that Mr. Williams has Antlers' club and that Mr.
 Halley's chickens hatched and flew away before he got his wings in reach.

We have no interest in the Choctaw Nation sensible. These matters are brought forward merely for the purpose of showing how that nation is divided, while on the other hand, the united force of the Chickasaw Nation is for one man.

 town is progressing nicely.
 The bridge on the M. and P. bank is finished.

Sulphur.
 The body of J. J. Brice, a man about 50 years of age, was found near the bridge spring late yesterday afternoon. The death is attributed to heart failure. Inquest will take place here this afternoon at 3 o'clock.
 Deceased leaves a wife and four children, all of whom are grown and residents of this place.
 The Democratic primary will be held here today.

Davis.
 R. W. Dick, S. Suggs and Will Pycatt passed through here yesterday enroute to the Democratic meeting at Sulphur. The sentiment of Davis is hurrah for Dick, and the password is let the Chickasaw Nation stick together.

J. R. Pennington was here from Ardmore yesterday.

The Best Cough Syrup.
 S. L. Apple, ex-Probate Judge, Ottawa County, Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup that I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W.

About the only good reason the women have for thinking a man should take care of the baby, is that it is as much his as hers, anyway.

Cured Consumption.
 Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kas., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and

THE HENRY FURMAN CLUB.

Strong Democratic Club at Milburn Endorses R. W. Dick—Enthusiasm.
 Special to the Ardmoreite.
 Milburn, I. T., March 29.—The Henry Furman club of this place met tonight with a membership of 27. The organization was completed by electing A. J. Milburn, president; R. F.
 Blount, first vice-president; Jesse Hearrell, second vice-president; James Thomas, treasurer, and M. H.
 Williams, secretary.

On motion the club adopted the name of the Henry M. Furman Democratic club of Milburn. The club unanimously endorsed and instructed for Hon. R. W. Dick for national committee.

There was great enthusiasm manifested and the Democracy of Milburn is in line and ready for the great battle of 1934. The club will meet again next Saturday night.

 To a friend who has suffered believement, a note of condolence is a graceful acknowledgment.

An older woman always precedes a younger woman in entering a door or any place.

In going up a stairway a gentleman precedes a lady and in coming down he follows her.

Until a lady recognizes him, a gentleman has not the privilege of bowing to her.

A widow retains the name of her deceased husband on her calling cards.
 In all forms of social correspondence the best taste is shown in the use of plain white paper of good quality.

A gentleman may not begin a correspondence with a lady without first obtaining her permission.

When meeting a friend accompanied by a lady, a gentleman should always raise his hat, even though he be not acquainted with her.

Answer an invitation to dinner or other social engagement as soon as possible, never deferring it longer than the day after receiving it.

In a small gathering the conversation should be as general as possible, and it is bad form to devote one's self to one person exclusively.

An Anecdote of Whittier.
 A friend in conversation with Mr.
 Whittier, the poet, remarked that he was about to contract to furnish a lot of oak timber for the government gun-boats and asked him if he thought it was in accordance with the peace doctrines of the Quaker denomination.
 Without saying anything calculated to decide the question the two arrived at their parting place, when Mr. Whittier, shaking his friend's hand, said, "Moses, if thou dost furnish any of that oak timber thou spoke of, be sure that it is all sound."

Deserving of Pity.
 "There goes Roxham. Every time I think of that man's financial embarrassment it makes me yearn to help him."
 "Financial embarrassment?"
 "Yes. He's got so much money he doesn't know what to do with it."

DYNAMITED THE BUILDING.

Drastic Measures Used at Ada to Oust Negroes From the Town.

Office Deputy Marshal T. E. Brents of Ada arrived here today and told your reporter of unknown parties in Ada last night dynamiting a negro restaurant and lodging house of that place with a view of making the negroes leave town. Heretofore Mr.
 Brents said, no negroes were allowed to take up their abode in Ada. During the last term of the Ada court, however, there were so many negro witnesses in attendance at court that by request of Judge Townsend a negro restaurant and lodging house was permitted and since that time many negro witnesses have been in attendance at Judge Talbot's court, and the negro restaurant has held on, resisting all attempts to have it dynamited. Last night between 8 and 9 o'clock an explosion was heard at the restaurant and investigation developed the fact that the restaurant had been blown up by the aid of dynamite.

Only one negro was hurt, an old negro who was sick, and his injuries are not considered fatal.
 J. W. Beard, the owner of the building, has offered $150 reward for the apprehension of the guilty parties and Mr. Brents thinks $500 reward will be offered by night.

The better element of the white people, Mr. Brents said, condemn the action of the dynamiters.
